

Irene Loizidou Nicolaidou is the Director of the Radiotelevision and Digital Services Authority since June 2026, a Special Scientist for teaching at the Department of Law of the University of Cyprus and PhD Candidate in Law, National and Kapodistrian University of Athens (NKUA).

She was Vice-Chair of the European Data Protection Board (2023–2025), Information Commissioner (2020–2025), and Commissioner for the Protection of Personal Data of the Republic of Cyprus (2015–2025). Prior to these appointments, she worked as a lawyer and legal consultant (2001–2015).

She holds an LLB from the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens, an MBA from the Cyprus International Institute of Management (CIIM), and a diploma in Professional Journalism. She is also a certified mediator accredited by the Centre for Effective Dispute Resolution (CEDR).

Her previous public and professional appointments include serving as a Municipal Councilor of the Municipality of Engomi (2001–2015), a full member of the Cypriot Delegation to the Congress of Local and Regional Authorities of the Council of Europe (2007–2015), Vice-President of the Congress Monitoring Committee (2012–2015), and President of the Business and Professional Women’s Association of Kyrenia (BPW) (2011–2015).